

Gymnastics for All Coaching Pathway

Coaching pathway

There are two individual pathways within the Gymnastics for All (GfA) Coaching Pathway, Gymnastics for All and KinderGym, enabling coaches to specialise within this Gymsport.

Gymnastics for All Coaching Pathway

The Gymnastics for All Coaching Pathway has four levels. Advanced Silver is the highest accreditation that can be obtained by completing a coaching course. Master is an honorary title.

At Beginner level, coaches learn fundamental Gymnastics knowledge which is applicable to all Gymsports. At other levels coaches develop knowledge across a broad range of gymnastics skills as well as event performance and the use of equipment.

KinderGym Coaching Pathway

The KinderGym Coaching Pathway has two levels. Intermediate is the highest accreditation that can be obtained by completing a coaching course. Master is an honorary title.

At Beginner level, coaches learn fundamental Gymnastics knowledge which is applicable to all Gymsports. At other levels coaches will build upon their experience in relation to the Dominant Movement Patterns and teaching fundamental gymnastics skills.

Further information about course content can be found on the website under Get Involved » Coaches » Accreditation by levels.
